THUNDERBIRD OPERATIONS & SALES UPDATE

Sheffield Resources Limited (“Sheffield” or “the Company”) (ASX: SFX) Sheffield advises that it is withdrawing its March 2026 quarter production and shipment outlook for the Kimberley Mineral Sands (KMS) owned Thunderbird Mineral Sands Mine (Thunderbird) in Western Australia as a result of uncertainty arising from the matters described below.

March quarter mine production has been impacted by the reduced dozer fleet availability, lower mine contractor productivity and seasonal weather impacts reported in the December quarter continuing into the March quarter. February ore mined was higher than January as a result of an improvement in dozer fleet availability and despite ongoing seasonal weather impacts. The KMS team is continuing to work with the mining contractor to improve fleet dozer availability and mine productivity.

Given these challenges with mine production KMS has implemented a change in management with a site based Head of Operations with a track record of operational improvement appointed in March.

The improvement in dozer fleet availability seen in February continued into March ore however the Dry Mining Unit (DMU) suffered a mechanical failure on 9 March. A recovery plan is being developed by KMS and the mining contractor however mine production is expected to be impacted for at least a week as result of the failure.

The lower mine production had already resulted in lower concentrate production prior to the DMU failure. A higher proportion of HiTi concentrate (previously called leucoxene concentrate and renamed to better reflect the concentrate composition) is also being produced as result of optimisation of the process plant settings since resuming production of this additional concentrate product in late 2025. HiTi shipments are expected to commence during March.

This ASX announcement has been authorised for release by the Company’s Board of Directors.
